Beautiful View: Mountains and Arid Landscape

Crags Campground is partially shaded by Jeffrey pine trees and is near Robinson Creek and Twin Lakes with views of mountains and an arid landscape. Best Sites: The tent sites have the best views. All camp sites are in the open and spacing between them is enough to provide good privacy. Because the sites are in the open, most sites have views of the mountains and arid landscape. ** See notes in the Introduction.

Reviews from Other Campers: 1) The following excerpts are from a campground description found in the "U.S. National Forest Campground Guide" web site (<http://www.forestcamping.com/index.htm>) : "...This campground is one of five in the Twin Lakes Recreation Area. ... It is comprised of two loops - Matterhorn Camp Loop and Sawtooth Camp Loop. Sawtooth has flush toilets and a vault, both wheelchair friendly and each has an outstanding view of Sawtooth Ridge. The Matterhorn has only a vault toilet and partial view of Sawtooth Ridge. Each camp site in this loop has a camp stove pedestal and cement pad for table and grille area. The tent site's view (Matterhorn Camp Loop) of the Bridger Valley is outstanding. Although all camp sites are in the open, spacing between them is ample enough to provide good privacy. The understory is Sagebrush...This is bear country; practice safe food storage techniques...The parking aprons are paved. The campground will accommodate any size RV..."
