

Iris Meadow

Inyo N. F.

Beautiful View: Meadow, Mountains and Mixed Forest

Campground is open and surrounded by a mixed lodgepole pine and aspen forest next to Rock Creek. It circles a grass meadow dotted with Iris and sagebrush and has views of surrounding mountain peaks. Best Sites: All sites have views of the meadow and most sites should have views of mountain peaks. * See notes in the Introduction.

Reviews from Other Campers: 1) The following excerpts are from a campground description found in the "U.S. National Forest Campground Guide" web site (<http://www.forestcamping.com/index.htm>) : "...The campground is a single loop and a spur next to Rock Creek. The loop encircles a grass meadow dotted with Iris and sagebrush. The camp sites on the loop are all open and can accommodate large RVs. Camp sites on the spur are tucked into Aspen and Lodgepole pine and well shaded. These camp sites (3-8) are short and best suited for tents, slide-ins, and pop-up tent campers. The sites are well spaced and have good privacy. Firewood is provided for a fee. Bring mosquito repellent...This is bear country; practice safe food storage techniques. ...The parking aprons are dirt..."
