Reviews from Other Campers: 1) The following excerpts are from a campground description found in the "U.S. National Forest Campground Guide" web site (<http://www.forestcamping.com/index.htm>) : "...The campground stretches along the South Platte River across from dense woods of mixed conifers. Most of the sites overlook the river which can be heard throughout the campground. This is a pretty campground for either the angler or other camper just wanting to relax and enjoy the tranquil setting. Sandbar Willows provide privacy between camping sites...This is bear country; practice safe food storage techniques...The parking aprons are gravel..."
