Reviews from Other Campers: 1) The following excerpts are from a campground description found in the "U.S. National Forest Campground Guide" web site (<http://www.forestcamping.com/index.htm>) : "...The campground is pack it in, pack it out [whatever you take in you take out - garbage, etc.] and wanders up a hillside above Middle Fork Creek in a thick grove of Aspen and wild roses. Some camping sites have a nice view of the other side of valley. The sites are widely spaced for privacy. The campground has a wild, rustic undiscovered feeling. ...This is bear country; practice safe food storage techniques...The parking aprons are grass and the interior road is rough..."
