Reviews from Other Campers: 1) The following excerpts are from a campground description found in the "U.S. National Forest Campground Guide" web site (<http://www.forestcamping.com/index.htm>) : "...The campground, one of five in the Spring Mountains National Recreation Area (NRA), stretches up Kyle Canyon next to a dry wash along State Rt. 157 with camp sites tucked in among Gambel oak, Ponderosa pine and Mountain mahogany. Young oak, Manzanita, and wild roses provide excellent privacy between sites. The campground is composed of three unnamed loops and a connecting road. One loop is behind the Forest Service information board and meanders around on a shady hillside. Another loop is at far end of campground and has most of the double sites. The last loop winds back to the campgrounds mid-section and has pleasantly secluded camp sites. The road linking the loops has the most sunny and open sites. Most camp sites have a view of Kyle Canyon's towering northern wall. ...This is the closest NRA campground to Las Vegas and traffic noise from State Rt. 157 can be heard throughout...The parking aprons are paved..."
