Reviews from Other Campers: 1) The following excerpts are from a campground description found in the "U.S. National Forest Campground Guide" web site (<http://www.forestcamping.com/index.htm>) : "...The North entrance to Crater Lake National Park is 9 miles south from campground. The campground, on the east side of Diamond Lake and one of three in the Diamond Lake Recreation Area, is a series of eleven interconnected spurs (A,B,C,D,E,F, G, H, K, L, and M) stretching 2.3 miles along the shoreline. The south side of campground has lots of Lodgepole pine while the north side has an old forest of fir and spruce along with aspen and some Lodgepole pine trees. Both sides have wildflower-dotted meadows and many campsites have a view of the lake and Mt. Bailey. Also, many of the sites are along the shore of the lake where boats can be moored nearby. Interpretive programs are offered at Diamond Lake's amphitheater during the summer...The parking aprons are paved. Grey water disposal sites are scattered around campground. The campground can accommodate any size RV...Diamond Lake is 3,000 acres. Boat ramp has a courtesy dock. ..."
