Ashley N. F.

Beautiful View: Reservoir/Dam, Mountains and Evergreen Forest

Situated at 6,900', the landscape here is mainly Ponderosa Pine. Near the site, an overlook contains the memorial to 3 firefighters that died in the Cart Creek Fire. Best Sites: A few camp sites in each loop have views of the reservoir. ** See notes in the Introduction.

Reviews from Other Campers: 1) The following excerpts are from a campground description found in the "U.S. National Forest Campground Guide" web site (<http://www.forestcamping.com/index.htm>) : "...On a ridge high above the Flaming Gorge Reservoir in Ponderosa, juniper, and Pinyon pine, the campground is composed of three loops - A, B, and C. A few camp sites on each loop have a dramatic vista of the reservoir and dam and all have a pleasant view of the surrounding area. Loop A is the sunniest and traffic noise from US Rt. 191 is noticeable. Loop C has the best vistas but is rocky making pitching a tent a challenge on some camp sites. While Loops A and B contain all reserveable camp sites, Loop C is first come, first serve...This is bear country; practice safe food storage techniques...The parking aprons are paved. There are grey water disposal tubes at each camp site in Loops A and B. The campground will accommodate any size RV... "
