Beautiful View: River and Evergreen Forest

Campground is along the Yellowstone River in Ashley National Forest. Best Sites: Most sites should have a view and easy access to the river; however, privacy between sites is not very good. ** See notes in the Introduction.

Reviews from Other Campers: 1) The following excerpts are from a campground description found in the "U.S. National Forest Campground Guide" web site (<http://www.forestcamping.com/index.htm>) : "...The campground is a single loop along the banks of the fast-flowing Yellowstone River. A little more RV friendly than the nearby Swift Creek campground, this campground has easier access to the river. Although most camp sites have an unkept appearance, this rustic campground overall has a scenic beauty. Lodgepole pines and heavy grass understory do little to improve on the minimal privacy between camp sites...This is bear country; practice safe food storage techniques...The parking aprons are grass and gravel..."
